All time off for injury disability, illness, authorized leave of absence, or restricted hours of work in case of Part-time employees etc. shall be added to the probation period. If the employee is retained in the service of the Company beyond that date, their seniority will date from the day the employee was last hired at the Edmonton International Airport. During the probationary period full-time employees will be covered by and entitled to, unless specifically excluded, all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, except that they may be displaced or discharged. The purpose of the probationary period is to determine, in the opinion of the Employer, the suitability of the employee for continued employment. Reasons for discharge shall be forwarded to the Union Office. Such discharge shall be deemed to be made with proper cause.

Any employee of the Company transferring into the Bargaining Unit will be considered as a new employee and will be added to the bottom of the seniority list in the classification to which they are transferring. The Company will make all attempts to assist employees through their qualifying period in new classifications. However, during the ninety (90) day qualifying period, should the Company determine the employee is not suitable in the new position, the employee will be moved back to their original position without loss of seniority.

Loss of Seniority:

Notice of re-call shall be sent by courier to the last address filed with the Company. Failure to respond within seven (7) days of the courier being confirmed received by registered mail, automatically closes out the Employee's record. Further, if the Employee refuses to return for the work assignment specified by the Company, the Company shall consider the Employee to have resigned and close out the Employee's record.

- 9.08 Employees who are promoted out of the bargaining unit into a permanent position shall continue to retain and accrue seniority under this Agreement for a period not to exceed six (6) months.
