RE: LENGTH OF SERVICE RECOGNITION PROGRAM (LSRP)

The parties agree to implement the Length of Service Recognition Program (LSRP) to recognize an employee(s) tenure and to promote continued retention within the company. The LSRP will commence in December of the year of ratification, for each year of this agreement. A payment of sixty-five dollars ($65.00) per each year of service, additionally a payment for each month actively and worked will receive an additional sixty-five dollars ($65.00) before December 25 every calendar year (calendar year to be defined as December 1 – November 30). For example: a member has ten (10) years of service and has actively worked every month between December 1 – November 30 will receive the following compensation: ten (10) years x sixty five dollars ($65.00) = six hundred and fifty dollars ($650.00) + twelve (12) months x sixty-five dollars ($65.00) = seven hundred and eighty dollars ($780.00), totaling payment of one thousand, four hundred and thirty dollars ($1,430.00) minus statutory deductions.

Eligibility requirements to receive payment under the LSRP are as follows: employees must be actively employed and working at the time of payment; those who are laid-off when payment occurs in December of each year will not be eligible for payment, while those who are on an approved protected leave (protected leaves as defined in the Canada Labour Code) will receive payment for months worked and for years of service. For example, an employee(s) with eight (8) years of seniority is approved to take Parental Leave and commences said leave on May 1 will receive the following compensation: eight (8) years x sixty-five dollars ($65.00) = five hundred and twenty dollars ($520.00) + five (5) months x sixty-five dollars ($65.00) = three hundred and twenty-five dollars ($325.00), equaling a total of eight hundred and forty-five dollars ($845.00) minus statutory deductions. Employee(s) who are terminated or resign prior to payment in December of each year of this agreement will receive no compensation under the LSRP.
