ARTICLE NO. 1 - BARGAINING AGENCY

- 1.1 The Union is recognized as the sole bargaining agency for the purpose of collective bargaining during the life of this Agreement, and thereafter, until such time as the bargaining unit elects another bargaining agent of their choice in accordance with the Labour Act. The Alberta Labour Relations Board has issued Certificate Number C2160-2023 that applies to this Collective Bargaining Agreement.
- 1.2 In the event an entire business or any part thereof is relocated, sold, leased, transferred, or taken over by sale, transfer, lease assignment, receivership or bankruptcy proceedings such business or any part thereof will continue to be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement for the life thereof.

ARTICLE NO. 2 - POSTING OF AGREEMENT

The Company will provide a bulletin board for the posting of this Agreement, and for such notices as the Union may from time to time wish to post.

ARTICLE NO. 3 - UNION SECURITY

- 3.1 All full-time employees covered by this Agreement, who have been employed for seven (7) calendar days, shall as a condition of employment pay the monthly Union dues as regular Members of the said Union, or the equivalent thereof.
- 3.2 All employees who are presently employed by the Employer as a condition of employment must obtain and/or maintain their Union Membership in good standing.

For the purpose of this Agreement, the sole definition of Membership in good standing means that they must pay in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the regularly prescribed initiation fee, regular Monthly Union dues, and periodic assessments uniformly required of all Members in the Bargaining Unit.

The Employer agrees that when it hires new employees, the Employer shall have such new employees complete the required Union Application for Membership cards prior to commencing work and submit to the Union office by agreed upon means.

The Employer shall deduct and pay over to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union, any monthly Union dues, Initiation fees and/or assessments which may be levied in accordance with the Union's By-laws, owing by said employees hereunder to the Union.

- New Member initiation fee: $100.00
- Monthly Union dues: 2.5x base hourly rate (rounded to nearest whole number) + $4.00.
- Example: $30.00 / hour x 2.5 = $75.00 + $4.00 = $79.00 / month.

*Rates are subject to change based on the Union's requirements.

The Employer shall deduct the monies from the first two (2) pays of an employee each month and remit such monies to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of the following month in which the monies are deducted, together with one (1) copy of the Check-off list as above mentioned. (Note: for the purpose of definition: "Check-off List" is the updated Union's Pre-Billing statement as indicated below).

The Employer will, at the time of making each remittance hereunder to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union, update the Union's Pre-Billing statement showing all monthly dues submitted for Members along with current address, postal code, date of hire and Social Insurance Number.

The Monthly Check-Off list will reference any;

- New Members to be listed in alphabetical order with current address, postal code, date of hire and Social Insurance Number.
- Terminations or resignations are to be clearly identified with current address, postal code, Social Insurance Number and date of termination or resignation.
- Any current address change to be updated as well as name changes (i.e. marriage).

If an employee works anytime during a month, the Employer assures the Union that the total amount of the monthly dues as specified by the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union will be deducted and forwarded to the Local Union. Probationary employees included.

There shall be no responsibility on the part of the Company with respect to employment of probationary employees should they be laid off or discharged during the probationary period.

- 3.3 When additional regular employees are required, the Company will give consideration to Union Members, recommended by the Union.
- 3.4 Except as otherwise herein provided, all storing and handling of merchandise, or other goods or materials, shall be carried on by employees of the Company, Members of the Union, where such work is under the control of the Company.
- 3.5 Temporary employees will not be used for the purpose of handling merchandise or other material while the Company has regular employees available.
- 3.6 The Company shall have the right to utilize contractors to perform work, provided that no employee on the seniority list is laid off as a result of utilizing contractor services.
- 3.7 a) An employee shall be considered a regular employee of the Company when:
- i. The employee has completed the probationary period;
 - ii. The employee makes himself/herself available to the Company for full-time employment, or part-time employment, or as the employee may be needed;
 - iii. The employee has fully qualified in regard to the Company-approved physical examination or other normal Company requirements.
- b) i Full-time employees are defined as those who have a scheduled shift equalling at least sixty (60) hours per pay period;
- ii. Part-time employees are defined as those who work less than fifty-nine (59) hours per pay period.

- c) A casual employee shall:
 - i. Be hired on an incidental and temporary basis, to provide for additional manpower;
 - ii. Be given first opportunity to qualify as regular employees as openings become available and will then be placed at the bottom of the regular employees' Seniority List, providing they meet all Company qualifications and requirements.
- 3.8
- a) All newly hired regular employees shall be considered as probationary employees for the first ninety (90) calendar days of employment.
 - b) There shall be no responsibility on the part of the Company respecting employment of probationary employees should they be laid off for lack of work, or discharged, during the probationary period.
 - c) On completion of ninety (90) days of probationary employment, such employees shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this Agreement.

ARTICLE NO. 4 - GENERAL

- 4.1
- a) The Parties hereto recognize that all the clauses and stipulations of this Agreement are subject to the Grievance Procedure.
 - b) The Union shall appoint or elect such number of Shop Stewards as the Union deems necessary and shall notify the Company of such appointment or election. Such Shop Stewards shall have twelve (12) months continuous service with the Company. The Company shall recognize Shop Stewards and shall not discriminate against them for lawful Union activity.
 - c) The Company shall allow time off without pay to any employee who is serving on a Union Committee, or as a Delegate, providing all requests for time off are reasonable, and/or do not interfere with the proper operation of the business, and provided forty-eight (48) hours written notice is given to the Company by the Union, specifying the length of time off.
 - d) Authorized agents of the Union will request and have access to the Company's establishment during working hours for the purpose of investigating conditions related to Union contract clauses and shall in no way interrupt the Company's working schedules. Where the company operates on and from another company or customer, property or facility, the Union agrees additional permission from the company will be required before the Union agent can have access. A reasonable amount of time not less than 24 hours is required to arrange for permission and access unless accompanied by a company officer.
 - e) The Company will indicate the amount deducted for Union dues, in the appropriate box on the employees' T-4 Slips.
 - f) The Company and Union shall establish, during the term of this Agreement, a Labour/Management Committee. This committee will be advisory in nature and will meet to discuss and recommend on matters concerning operations. Each Party will endeavour to inform the other, in advance, of the subjects that they wish to discuss at these meetings.

- g) The necessity of the classification of a Lead Hand will be at the discretion of the Company and they will be a regular employee who will direct the work of the others while performing the same work themselves. They will not have the authority to directly hire, fire, suspend or discipline employees.

They will be a Member of the Union.

Seniority in the unit shall prevail for layoff purposes or shift discontinuance.

Where the Company designates that a Lead Hand is required, a bid will be posted, and the position will be filled with a qualified person that applies for the position. An employee who wishes to receive training to qualify for a Lead Hand position can request such training in writing to the Company.

The Company shall have full discretion in the selection of the Lead Hand and full determination whether lead hand is required however, when qualifications are equal in every respect, the most senior employee will be given preference. Such bids for that position will be posted for seven (7) days.

ARTICLE NO. 5 - SENIORITY

- 5.1 Seniority shall be based on the length of continuous service an employee has been on the payroll, subject to Section 5.2 of this Article. Seniority shall be by location within this Agreement.

For employees covered by this Collective Agreement, seniority shall be specific to this bargaining unit, and two (2) separate groups or units for seniority purposes shall be recognized:

Unit #1 - Machine Operators and Yard person/Ground person

Unit #2 - Maintenance Shop Employees

The Company will post and maintain seniority lists. Such up-to-date lists will be posted each month of the year. Copies of current lists will be provided to the Local Union, via email to the affected Business Agent. Any employee wishing to protest seniority must do so within thirty (30) days of the posting of the seniority lists.

Seniority will be maintained in the reduction and restoration of the working force, provided the senior employee is qualified for the remaining job. Any employee wishing to transfer from one unit to another unit will make an application to the Company in writing and will be given preference over a new applicant provided the employee can meet the Company qualifications.

When an employee transfers from one unit/seniority list to another unit/seniority list, they may retain their seniority in their former unit for a maximum of seven (7) calendar days. At the expiry of these seven (7) calendar days, such employee must relinquish their seniority rights within the former unit or revert back to their previous seniority status.

An employee wishing to transfer from one seniority list to another will be afforded the right to do so, as per their Company seniority, but shall not displace/bump another employee in the affected unit/seniority list. Regardless of an employee's place on the seniority list, every employee will always maintain their overall Company seniority.

5.2 An employee shall lose all seniority rights for any one or more of the following reasons:

- a) voluntary resignation
- b) discharge for cause
- c) failure to return to work after layoff under Section 5.3 of this Article

5.3 a) Seniority shall prevail within the Company in the event of layoffs, with the junior employee covered by this Agreement being laid off first, providing the senior employee is capable of performing the remaining work.

- b) The Company agrees to rehire laid off employees on a seniority basis, commencing with the last employee laid off. When recalling any employee to work after being laid off, the employee shall be notified by phone, email, or failing the first two (2) options, registered mail, directed to the employee's last known address, and such employee will be allowed seven (7) days to report to work.

5.4 Daily call-in Monday through Sunday, will be on a seniority basis. Preference of overtime shall be given to senior employees, but the employee shall have the right to decline; however, upon reaching the bottom of the list with respect to seniority, the junior employee shall be required to work the overtime.

An employee who has worked a total of one (1) shift of overtime in a week, shall not be required to work any further overtime that week, provided the employee notifies the Employer of their intent. The Employer shall post a weekly overtime list. Employees looking for the overtime work shall sign the list indicating the day of preference.

5.5 a) Company-authorized Leave of Absence, for any other reason than ill health, shall be in writing, and will consist of a maximum of thirty (30) days. Any extension of Leave of Absence over thirty (30) days shall be in writing, and agreed upon by the Union, the Company, and the employee concerned.

- b) In the event that a driver shall suffer revocation of Driver's License, and other employment is not available within the Company, the employee shall be granted a Leave of Absence for the duration of the revocation, providing the reason for revocation did not occur while at work, or driving Company equipment unless by mutual agreement the maximum leave shall be one hundred and twenty (120) days.

5.6 a) Seniority will prevail for the purpose of shift preferential, equipment, new jobs, or vacancies within the Company, providing that the employee is qualified, but there shall be no job bumping privileges. Any new job or vacancy on existing jobs, shall be posted for seven (7) days for bid.

- b) It is agreed between the Company and the Union that once each year all employees may bid to transfer to other start times within their classification, providing they have the necessary qualifications and seniority.

The bid will be held annually in the month of July and will be posted for seven (7) days commencing on the first (1st) of that month. The bid will show the number of departmental shifts starting times and or special operations. Each employee will be brought into the office in order of seniority to sign the bid at which time the employee must indicate their preference. The transfer of employees will be affected commencing on the first (1st) Sunday of the month in August. The results of the bid will be posted for at least seven (7) days prior to the annual change and the Local Union's area office concerned will be given copies when completed.

Employees who are away from work will be contacted by the Employer via phone call to confirm their preference.

Employees can only move from dayshift to nightshift or nightshift to dayshift when a vacancy is posted.

- c) In emergency situations where the Employer requires employees to work outside of their bid position, they will only use employees that are qualified for the work. This work would be allocated by seniority, allowing senior employees the option and/or requiring junior employees to work to fulfill the Company needs.

5.7 The Company will post and maintain Seniority Lists. Such up-to-date lists will be posted each month of the year. Copies of current lists will be provided to the Local Union. Any employee wishing to protest seniority must do so within thirty (30) days of the posting of the Seniority Lists.

Seniority Lists will be made up as follows:

A master Seniority List of all employees covered by this Agreement, showing the official date each employee became employed as a regular employee.

5.8 a) When an employee within the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement receives a Leave of Absence to take a position within the Company which is beyond the sphere of the bargaining unit, the employee may retain his/her seniority for a maximum of ninety (90) days within the former unit.

b) At the end of this period of ninety (90) days, the employee must exercise their seniority rights by returning to the former unit or relinquish all such seniority rights.

Other Leave of Absence – When an employee within the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement receives a Leave of Absence to take a position within the Union which is beyond the sphere of the bargaining unit, the employee may retain their seniority for a maximum of one (1) year within the former unit.

ARTICLE NO. 6 - SAFETY CONDITIONS

6.1 It shall be the duty of the employee to report in writing on the appropriate forms of the Company, promptly but not later than the end of their trip or shift, all safety and/or mechanical defects on the equipment which they operated during that shift or trip. If the driver fails to notify the Company of any equipment defects, the employee shall be subject to reprimand. The Company agrees to ensure daily equipment pre-trip inspection reports have the optionality to add external e-mail addresses, in order for the employee to receive a copy for their records.

6.2 It shall be the obligation of the Company to direct the repair as necessary to conform with the safe and efficient operation of that equipment.

6.3 In the event the repairs cannot be affected, the equipment will be correctly identified and be kept out of service until repaired. In the event a dispute arises as to the safety condition of a unit, the Supervisor will provide the employee a report on the condition of the equipment indicating the unit is safe to operate.

- 6.4 In order to provide adequate vision for any employee operating trucks or heavy equipment, the Company will endeavour to provide proper tools and time to maintain their windows and mirrors.
- 6.5 The Company will endeavour to keep speedometers in proper working order, and all units will be supplied with fire extinguishers.
- 6.6 The Company agrees to maintain clean, sanitary washrooms, having hot and cold running water, with toilet facilities at its main terminals and garages.
- 6.7 The Company shall provide clean and adequate lunchrooms for its employees at its main terminals, where such lunchrooms are used by the employees.
- 6.8 The Company will install fire extinguishers and First Aid kits in all units in compliance with the Workers Compensation Act. The onus will be on the employee to report all shortages to the Lead Hand, Supervisor or Manager.

ARTICLE NO. 7 - HOURS OF WORK

- a) Every employee will be paid one and one-half (1 ½) times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked exceeding their normal scheduled hours for the pay period. Employees who missed days during the pay period will be offered the opportunity to work on their days off at straight time for all hours missed, until they reach their normal scheduled hours for the pay period.
- b) Regular employees reporting for duty on a call-out or call-back basis, inconsistent with their regular scheduled working day or shift, shall be guaranteed a minimum of four (4) hours pay at the appropriate rate of pay.

- The Company may waive the progression rate at the discretion of the Company. At the end of nine (9) months following successful qualification in a new position, the employee shall be at the full rate of pay.
- 8.3 Employees will receive a nine (9) hour rest between scheduled shifts or will be paid overtime rates for all hours worked on the following shift.
- 8.4 Employees whose shift starts between 4:59 p.m. - 3:59 a.m. shall receive a night-shift premium of one dollar and twenty-five cents ($1.25) per hour for the duration of that shift.
- 8.5 The Lead Hand will receive a three dollar ($3.00) per hour premium above their hourly rate.
- 8.6 Any employee assigned to train an employee will be compensated a two dollar and thirty cent ($2.30) per hour training premium for each hour spent training. To be eligible for the training premium, the Trainer must complete a daily training evaluation for and submit to the Company.

ARTICLE NO. 9 - PAYMENT and WORKING CONDITIONS

- 9.1 a) Wages shall be paid bi-weekly on the same day every two (2) weeks by direct deposit.
- The Company shall provide each employee covered by this Agreement with access to an itemized pay statement in respect to all payments made to such employee. Such statement shall set forth the dated pay period, the total hours worked or paid for, the rate applicable, and all deductions made from the gross amount of wages.
- b) If an error occurs in the payroll computation of an employee's paycheque, and the amount is equal to one (1) days' pay or more, the employee shall be entitled on request to receive same within five (5) business days after the request. If an employee improperly completes a timecard or pay claim or does not turn them in immediately on completion of the trip or tour, any pay so affected will be included with the next regular pay period.
- c) Upon termination, either voluntary or discharge, the Company shall remit all money due to the employee as soon as possible and no later than ten (10) consecutive days after the end of the pay period in which termination occurred.
- 9.2 When an employee meets with a personal injury while on duty, which prevents the employee from completing the shift, the employee will be paid a sum equal to the average daily rate earned in the previous five (5) working days.
- 9.3 When an employee goes off work ill, or on Compensation, the Company shall continue to pay the Health and Welfare fees so that at all times the employee shall be protected to the utmost, provided:
- a) The employee reimburses the Company for that portion of such contributions made on their behalf, and is at no time more than three (3) months in arrears, and;

b) The period of such coverage shall not exceed twelve (12) months.

When an employee returns to work, the Company shall deduct from their earnings, any monies the Company has paid out in respect to their contributions.

In the event any employee does not return to work, and the employee refuses or neglects, on demand at the last known address, to make restitution for such monies paid out, the Union shall then reimburse the Company for said amount.

9.4 Any Company or Government-required physical or medical examination, including drivers medical exams for the purpose of their vehicle operator's license, will be promptly complied with by all employees' provided however the Company will pay for all such physical or medical examinations. The Company and the employee will give each other twenty-four (24) hours' notice prior to such examination.

9.5 Any regular full-time employee who is required to perform Jury Duty on a day on which the employee would normally have worked, or attends court in response to a subpoena, only to give evidence as a witness concerning matters occurring during the regular course of employment with the Company, will be reimbursed by the Company for the difference between the pay received for Jury Duty or witness attendance, and the employee's regular straight time hourly rate of pay, for regularly scheduled hours of work. It is understood that such reimbursement shall not be for hours in excess of eight (8) hours per day, or forty (40) hours per week, less pay received for Jury Duty or witness attendance. The employee will be required to furnish proof of jury service or witness attendance, and Jury Duty pay, or witness fee received therefore, and the employee shall be responsible to account to the Company for witness fee received both with a subpoena and subsequently to the service thereof. Any employee on Jury Duty or witness attendance shall subject to this provision make themselves available for work before or after being required for such duty, whenever practicable. This clause will have no application for any employee on Leave of Absence, or when receiving benefits under Compensation or as otherwise covered in this Agreement.

9.6 Employees who have been employed by MacCosham for at least ninety (90) days are eligible for three (3) paid days of bereavement leave per calendar year for the death of an immediate family member. If the employee attends a service, the employee will be compensated for their regular hours lost from their regular shift, at their regular hourly rate, on any of the days prior to the service, the day of the service, and the day after the service.

Three (3) paid days per calendar year may be deferred to another time of the employee's choosing within thirty (30) days of the death, unless otherwise mutually agreed to by the Company and employee. In addition, if the service is in excess of two hundred kilometers (200kms) from the Calgary location, two (2) additional unpaid days will be granted for a total of five (5) days. Any employee who requests additional unpaid time off for bereavement will not be unjustly denied.

Employees with less than ninety (90) days of employment or in the event of the death of an extended family member, three (3) days of unpaid bereavement leave will be granted.

Immediate Family Members: Spouse, adult interdependent partner, or common-law partner, children, current or former foster children, current or former wards, parents, stepparents, current or former guardians, current or former foster parents, siblings, half-siblings, stepsiblings, grandchildren, step-grandchildren.

Extended Family Members: Grandparents, step-grandparents, aunts, uncles, step-aunts, step-uncles, nieces, nephews, a person the employee is not related to but considers to like a close relative.

9.7 The Company agrees to pay the full cost of any drivers abstract if required by the Company.

9.8 a) The Company will provide employees with the required personal protective equipment as outlined in policies and procedures specific to the operations and work being conducted.

Employees will be provided with an additional seventy-five-dollar ($75.00) subsidy paid as reimbursement allowance for the purchase of safety boots meeting the minimum safety requirements outlined in Company and customer rules, policies, and procedures.
